

INTO THE KLOSS

Supermodel Karlie Kloss has a charming way of down-playing just how sparkly her life is. The Cannes Film Festival is "like a really glamorous French prom." Her now-iconic lob? A cut she got because her hair was "destroyed." And her crew, which includes Taylor, Gigi and Cara, is simply a group of "wonderful friends." But when it comes to beauty talk, the American supermodel and L'Oréal Paris brand ambassador keeps it one hundred. "Whether it's my hands, legs or face, all of my skin tends to be extra-dry and sensitive during the winter," she admits. Her cure-all? Carry. Cream. Everywhere. Her pick: L'Oréal Paris Hydra-Total 5 Ultra-Soothing Moisturizer ($15). "It hydrates, softens, comforts and replenishes. What more could you want?"

LATEST & GREATEST

BEAUTY BUZZ

This month's new and noteworthy must-haves.

ELLE ♥ LOVES

Facial massage. It's the quickest way to get lifted, plumped-up skin. Whether it's via your facialist or at home, just five minutes a day can reduce puffiness, boost circulation and sculpt skin. Apply some of your fave face cream and then use the platinum-coated Shiseido Facial Massage Roller ($195) to contour along the jawline, corners of the mouth and cheeks.

TRÈS JOLIE Tory Burch on the blossoming of her new floral fragrance trio. THE INSPO "My mom is an organic gardener, and I grew up surrounded by flowers; three of my favourites were garden roses, lily of the valley and tuberose. We wanted each scent to represent one of the qualities [of a woman]. Rose is feminine and romantic, Verte [with lily of the valley] is tomboyish and a little bit more laid-back and Bleue [with tuberose] is elegant and understated." THE EUREKA MOMENT "I definitely have an incredible visceral reaction [to a scent]. It's not always something that I can identify; it's more my intuition." THE BOTTLE "I love designing bottles as much as I love creating the actual juice. The lids are made with fretwork, which I grew up with. My parents always had it on their furniture." Tory Burch Jolie Fleur Rose, Jolie Fleur Verte and Jolie Fleur Bleue Eau de Parfum ($128 each)

HIGH ROTATION: BEAUTY-DEPARTMENT FAVES

Vanessa Craft, beauty director

"I sip this fruity tea—which contains hydrating electrolytes and free-radical-fighting flavonoids—when I'm feeling guilty about over-indulging (i.e., daily)." Myu Hydrate Mi Beauty Tea ($16 for 16 sachets)

Carli Whitwell, health & beauty editor

"My hair and I used to get along like Taylor Swift and Katy Perry. But any bad blood is now gone thanks to this shine- and volume-boosting boar-bristle brush." MoroccanOil Boar Bristle Round Brush ($92)

Victoria DiPlacido, assistant beauty editor

"After a recent misadventure with my beloved AHAs (always read the label, folks), my skin was, well, very sad. I used this supremely gentle micellar water to cleanse and remove makeup while my skin got back to normal." Bioderma Sensibio H2O ($27). For details, see Shopping Guide.
